

Bundelkhandi literature provides enthusiasm and energy: Prof. Munna Tiwari

Curtains draw over 2-day national seminar at Open Univ

Staff Reporter

Prayagraj: The closing session of the two-day national seminar organized on the contribution of Bhojpuri, Awadhi, Braj and Bundelkhandi languages in the development of Hindi under the joint aegis of Sahitya Academy at Uttar Pradesh Rajarshi Tandon Open University, was held on Friday.

The chief guest, Prof. Munna Tiwari, Chairman, Hindi Department of Bundelkhand University, said that Bundelkhandi language has an important contribution in saving the autonomy, independence and identity of Hindi. Prof. Tiwari said that there is a need to bring the anonymous creators of Bundeli and other dialects to light. For this, the current scholars of Hindi will have to become Ramchandra Shukla

While presiding, Open University Vice Chancellor Prof. Satyakam said that Hindi is mainly a collection of dialects. Every language has its own identity and identity. By studying languages like Awadhi, Bhojpuri as well as Maithili, representative Ajay Sharma said that regional languages

Angika, Magahi etc., we can understand our culture and civilization in a better way. There are many such words and addresses which enrich Hindi. Sahitya Academy have contributed significantly in giving Hindi an excellent place in society and literature. He said that the lectures given in various sessions of the two-day national seminar will be published in the form of a book. On this occasion, he presented the work published by Sahitya Academy on Awadhi and Bhojpuri to VC Prof. Satyakam.

Prof. Rampal Gangwar said that Braj Bhasha has a long series of poems inspired by tenderness as well as love and affection which added to the glory of Hindi development.

In the closing session, the guests were welcomed by Dr. Anandanand Tripathi and the report of the two-day national seminar was presented by Anupam. Programme was conducted by Dr. Trivikram Tiwari and vote of thanks was proposed by Prof. Satyapal Tiwari.

Earlier, two technical sessions were organized on the contribution of Braj Bhasha and Bundelkhandi in the development of Hindi. In which Prof. Rampal Gangwar, Prof. Haridutt Sharma, Prof. Rajnath Singh, Prof. Munna Tiwari and Dr. Bahadur Singh Patmar gave special lectures.