

A two-day National Seminar on 'Purushottam Shri Jagannath in Skanda Purana' was organized

Puri, (DMC): two-day National Seminar on 'Purushottam Shri Jagannath in Skanda Purana' was organized under the aegis of Sahitya Akademi, New Delhi and Central Sanskrit University, Sri Sadashiva Campus under the aegis of The Vice-Chancellor of the University, Prof. Srinivas Barkhedi and presided over by Prof. Banamali Biswal, Director, Campus.

The welcome address was delivered by Secretary, Sahitya Akademi, New Delhi, K. Prof. Harekrishna Satpathy, former Vice-Chancellor of National Sanskrit University, Tirupati and Convener of Sanskrit Advisory Board of Sahitya Akademi, New Delhi, was present as the foundation spokesperson. Prof. G.S.R. Krishnamurthy, Vice Chancellor, National Sanskrit University, Tirupati graced the occasion as the guest of honour and Prof. Prafulla Kumar Mishra, former Vice-Chancellor of Yoga Rajendra Narayan Agricultural University as the special guest. Later, the technical session started and the faculty members and research researchers from outside Odisha and Odisha read out their references. In this technical session, Prof. Basanta Kumar Mishra, Prof. Simanchal Panda, Prof. Satyanarayan Acharya, Prof. Prabhat Ranjan Mohapatra, Dr. Narsinghnath Guru, Prof. Harihar Panda, Prof. C. Dr. Lalitarani, Dr. Parmita

Panda, Dr. Niranjana Mishra, Dr. Bharat Bhushan Rath were also present on the occasion. Dr. Rudra Prasad Mishra and Dr. Subrata Kumar Sarangi were the coordinators of the technical session, while the coordinator of the entire program was Prof. Sushanta Kumar Raj and Joint Coordinator lect. Bishwanath Mishra and finally prof. Vijaypal Kachhwa, Associate Director of the campus, proposed the vote of thanks.