

BRICS Literary Conference organised : BRICS Literature Forum 2024 commenced in Kazan, Russia, on Wednesday. The conference was inaugurated by Ilсур Metshin, Mayor of Kazan. The theme of the 2024 edition of Literary BRICS is, "World literature in the new reality. Dialogue of traditions, national values and cultures." The conference is the confluence of writers, poets, philosophers, artists, and scholars from the BRICS countries. India is represented by Madhav Kaushik, president of Sahitya Akademi and K Sreenivasarao, Secretary of Sahitya Akademi. In the plenary session, Sri Madhav Kaushik talked about how literature is important in today's world and how literature drives unity and cooperation among various societies across the world. The second event involved Indian participants, "Meet the Authors from India," with the topic, "Volga to Ganga: Celebration of Tradition and Multiculturalism."

