NATIONAL GALLERY OF MODERN ART, BENGALURU
(Ministry of Culture, Government of India)

In collaboration with CITIZENS FOR NERALU

cordially invites you to the third edition of

On Sunday, 19 February, 2017

Neralu sets the tone for the Bengaluru Tree Festival with a wide range of events at NGMA: talks, workshops, performances and art. We invite you to experience audio walks, biomimicry, storytelling, educational games, and many other diverse activities geared towards enticing tree lovers. Some of the eminent personalities who have confirmed their presence are speakers Harini Nagendra and Pranay Lal, and artists Bindhumalini Narayanaswamy, Prachi Jariwala and Vasu Dixit.

For the detailed schedule, please visit: neralu.in/schedule

Neralu is entirely crowd-funded by citizens, and open to all. We hope to engage as many Bengalureans as possible, across various communities that inhabit this city, to connect to trees and create conversation around issues concerning ecology and urban living.

We invite you to join us with your family and friends, in this celebration of Bengaluru's trees.
