

INDIAN MUSEUM KOLKATA

(Ministry of Culture, Govt. of India)

in collaboration with

The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

presents

Workshop on

Preventive Conservation

Resource Persons

Dr. René Hoppenbrouwers

Director, Stichting Restauratie Atelier Limburg (SRAL), Maastricht, The Netherlands

Mr Vinod Daniel

Chairman of AusHeritage and Vice Chairman of the International Council of Museums Committee for Conservation

Topic of discussions / hands On

Introduction to Preventive Conservation: The relevance of PC over the past years, agents of deterioration, risk management and practical. The influence of light and radiation on art objects in relation to the exhibition environment, storage and exhibition management, site visit / use of instruments (T, RH, light, data loggers), art handling and packing, integrated pest management

April 10-11, 2017 | 10 am | Asutosh Birth Centenary Hall, Indian Museum

Participation through invitation/registration (Registration fee ₹ 300/)

For any queries, please call 033-22861699 | Follow us  Indianmuseumkolkata/